Moorabbin Aviation Services

COMPLETE PILOT PATHWAY

1 START FLYING

Student Pilot

Start flight training with a CASA approved Part 141 or Part 142 flight training organisation.

2 RECREATIONAL PILOT LICENCE (RPL)

The first formal pilot licence.
The "How to Fly" phase

3 PRIVATE PILOT LICENCE (PPL)

Develop the navigation skills and experience to fly independently and carry passengers for private purposes.

4 COMMERCIAL PILOT LICENCE (CPL)

The licence that allows a pilot to begin flying professionally.

5 BUILD YOUR PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

After obtaining a CPL pilot's can add further qualifications and ratings that expand the types of flying they can undertake.

INSTRUMENT RATING
Learn to fly under IFR (Instrument Flight Rules) . Allows flying operations in more weather/operational conditions

MULTI-ENGINE RATING
Become licenced to operate two engine aircraft

CPL + INSTRUMENT RATING + MULTI-ENGINE
The foundation for many professional flying careers.

6 BUILD FLYING EXPERIENCE

Pilots can follow many different professional career paths.

FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR
Teach the next generation of pilots & build valuable flying experience.

CHARTER PILOT
Fly passengers and/or cargo

REGIONAL AIRLINE PILOT
Fly scheduled regional services.

CORPORATE PILOT
Fly private and business aircraft.

FREIGHT / CARGO PILOT
Transport goods and cargo.

AERIAL SURVEY PILOT
Flies aircraft to collect aerial mapping/Survey data.

TOURISM/SCENIC FLIGHT PILOT
Conducting flights for tourism operations.

MEDICAL/ EMERGENCY SERVICES PILOT
Flight support for emergency services/medical evacuation

AGRICULTURAL PILOT
Uses aircraft for crop spraying and agricultural operations.

AIRLINE PATHWAY

AIRLINE FIRST OFFICER

BUILD AIRLINE EXPERIENCE

AIRLINE CAPTAIN

Becoming an Airline First Officer generally requires flight experience in another part of the aviation industry, a Multi Engine Instrument Rating and completion of a "Type Rating" on the aircraft type the airline wants you to fly (they will usually arrange this once they accept you into the airline)